

I want the Wisconsin No-Call List to continue. I do not want the federal governments intervention on who calls my home, or the costs of having to pay for a federal ruling, when the states can take care of it themselves. I thought George W was for less govt, not more!